Code of Conduct / Conditions of Use

The Hobart Showground is operated by the Royal Agricultural Society of Tasmania (est. 1821). We are a not-for-profit entity not supported by any Government or Council. All money raised by us is spent on improving our grounds and presenting quality events that showcase agriculture.

Our motorhome park is open but please be advised that we are currently in our redevelopment phase. Our new sites (Numbers 1-90 on the booking system) are now open; however, they are a mixture of concrete and gravel surface due to construction delays with astroturf next to each site for awnings. This may lead to increased dust in certain weather conditions, please contact us if this is of concern.

- You are required to display your camping permit so that it is clearly visible, on your dashboard or attached to your vehicle. Visitors should park in their designated site.
- Parking at the Royal Hobart Showground Motorhome Park is at your own risk. RAST accepts no liability for any damage that may occur to your property whilst onsite.

Vehicle Safety and Roadworthiness

By bringing a caravan, motorhome, campervan, or similar vehicle ('vehicle') onto the Royal Hobart Showground site, you certify that the vehicle is roadworthy, safe, and fit for purpose in accordance with relevant Australian Design Rules (ADRs) and state and federal vehicle safety laws. This includes compliance with applicable registration, braking, electrical, gas, and towing safety requirements.

RAST reserves the right to inspect, refuse entry to, or require the removal of any vehicle deemed unsafe, unroadworthy, or inadequately maintained. In addition, RAST may charge the vehicle owner or occupier for any damage caused to RAST property, infrastructure, or facilities resulting from the use of a poorly maintained or improperly equipped vehicle.

Visitors are reminded that they remain responsible for ensuring ongoing compliance with all applicable road transport and safety standards while on the property.
